

How old is your Gold Book?

The 25th anniversary edition of The Kentucky Directory Gold Book is now available. Order online at www.ClarkLegacies.com.

Updated since the November election, the Gold Book is the single, most comprehensive collection of data about Who's Who in Kentucky Government, Business and Education. We are proud to be operating under a new name, Clark Legacies, LLC a division of Integrated Media Corp. of Louisville, offering new titles and publishing services to choose from.

Our fast-growing collection of Kentucky authors and books include well-known Kentuckians like Al Smith, former host of KET's Comment on Kentucky, KET founder O. Leonard Press and Voice of the Wildcats Tom Leach. Integrated Media Corp. also publishes the Kentucky Travel Guide, What's Happening in Greater Louisville and the new KFC Yum! Center Arena Fan Guide.

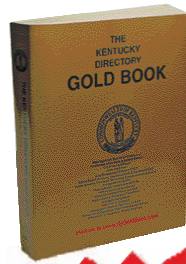

We invite you to take a look at the many titles published through Clark Legacies or our other self-publishing division, Evanston Publishing.

For more information, visit us at www.ClarkLegacies.com.

Thank you for your continued support and loyalty for the past 25 years. We look forward to providing you with more exciting books from our authors for many years.

Featured New Release

Wordsmith—My Life in Journalism

Soft Cover $34.95

Al Smith

Wordsmith: My Life in Journalism was written by Al Smith, former host for KET's "Comment on Kentucky." He is a master story-teller and his fascinating memoir is 448 pages. The book chronicles his life and politics. Al was appointed by two U.S. Presidents to chair the Appalachian Regional Commission. Al Smith covered a big-time mafia boss, crooked cops and mad Governor Earl Long until booze busted him off two New Orleans dailies. Sobering up on a Kentucky weekly, he began buying newspapers and launched a TV career. He worked for two U.S. presidents in Washington and won acclaim as a National Rural Hero for his efforts in journalism.

From his boyhood in a Sarasota mansion to living poor on a rundown Tennessee farm and winning a national speech championship, this is the colorful life story of an engaged and revered journalist who believes in truth and fairness and always has a cause to champion.

Whether it's your personal story, your company's anniversary story, your family's memoirs, organization's celebration or special event, Clark will create the very best solution to preserve the stories, photographs, and memories in an award winning production that will make you proud to use as a lasting gift for any occasion.

Clark Legacies, LLC specializes in the publishing of high quality books. Single authored or multi-authored complicated "coffee table" books for first-time or veteran authors or organizations. We seek projects in the "for-profit" and "non-profit" arenas—a variety of organizations, corporations, businesses, spiritual organizations, museums and historical societies—regional, national and worldwide.

Our custom solutions fit a variety of budgets and publishing timelines. Serving business and industry, fiction, non-fiction, family memoirs and Journals, historic subjects, fine art, medical, children, self help, etc.

We provide complete turn-key production service for third-party clients who fund and own the project and look to Clark Legacies to "produce" or manufacture books ready for distribution. This could be other publishers, advertising agencies, public relations firms, businesses, trade groups, non-profits or private entrepreneurs.

Let Clark Legacies help you preserve your story for many generations to come. Call or email us for a free consultation.
